

SCHCT offers communication scholarships for master's or doctoral students who wish to participate in the 11th European Spring School on History of Science and Popularization

Image source: To prevent influenza! Paul Thompson, Illustrated Current News 1918. US National Library of Medicine, Digital Collections

11TH EUROPEAN SPRING SCHOOL

PANDEMIC PASTS, PANDEMIC FUTURES
SOURCES, HISTORIES, IMAGINATIONS

5 - 7 MAIG

Llatzeret de Maó, Menorca

The SCHCT offers a series of scholarships for master's or doctoral students in the history of science who want to participate in the 11th European Spring School on History of Science and Popularization which will take place in Maó, from 5 to 7 May 2022.

This year, the theme of the school is:

PANDEMIC PASTS, PANDEMIC FUTURES; Sources, histories, imaginations

All those who are interested should send a letter of motivation to: schct@iec.cat

The deadline to send us your letter of motivation is 10 March 2022 and the decision taken by the SCHCT will be communicated directly to the interested parties before 25 March 2022.

Scholarships will cover:

- Registration
- and / or Accommodation
- and / or Travel (pre-set amount)
- depending on the needs mentioned in the letter of motivation and the selection of applications.

The scholarship will be conditioned to the attendance of all the European Spring School activities and to the active participation that will have to materialize in the realization of different communication actions regarding the European Spring School.

Communication activities:

- Interview with the teachers of the European Spring School
- Interview communication author + explanation of communication
- Poster author interview + Poster explanation
- Chronicle of the sessions
- European Spring School chronicle