

11th SPRING SCHOOL PROGRAMME
MAHON 5-7 MAY 2022

Day 1, Thursday 5 May
(Mahon Lazaretto)

Registration 14:30-15h

Welcome and introduction 15-15:15h

WORKSHOP 1 15:15-19:15h

Coordination and presentation:
Francisco Javier Martínez

GUEST SPEAKERS 15:15-16:45h

Impacts of Covid-19 on medical history

MARK HONIGSBAUM, City University of London, UK.

IRIS BOROWY, Shanghai University, China.

COFFEE-BREAK 16:45-17:15h

ORAL PRESENTATIONS 17:15-19:15h

Neta Talmud, PhD candidate, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel.

By the Rivers of Babylon: Understanding Germs and Environment in the 1889 Cholera Outbreak in Iraq

Shiori Nosaka. PhD candidate, EHESS, Paris, France.

Making an Epicenter. Construction of East Asia in the control of pandemics (1882-1925)

Radhika Hegde. Lecturer, St John's National Academy of Health Sciences, Bengaluru, India.

The Influenza Pandemic in Coorg in 1918: Looking back to look ahead

Day 2, Friday 6 May
(Mahon Lazaretto + Mahon Sala d'Audiències)

WORKSHOP 2 10h-13:45h Mahon Lazaretto

Coordination and presentation:
Celia Miralles-Buil

GUEST SPEAKERS, 10-11:15h

Pandemic sources for a history of the present: collecting, treating and analyzing native digital archives

CHRISTIAN BONAHE, Université de Strasbourg, France

ALEXANDRE FAYE, Bibliothèque Nationale de France, France

COFFEE-BREAK 11 :15-11:45h

ORAL PRESENTATIONS 11:45-13:45h

Léa Delmaire, PhD candidate, French Institute of Anatolian Studies, Istanbul, Turkey

Navigating a double scarcity: Finding health history sources in a country of “missing archives” (Turkey, 2016-2019 – TB control, 1945-1975)

Alejandra de Leiva, PhD candidate and Jon Arrizabalaga, Institució Milà I Fontanals-
CSIC, Barcelona, Spain

Serological screening for syphilis of donated blood during the Spanish Civil War

Helena Da Silva, Universidade Nova de Lisboa, Portugal

MemoriaCovid: collecting sources for future research

Ved Baruah, Assistant Professor, Shanghai University, China

Social Imaginaries of Covid-19 in India: Voluntary collectives and citizens' voices as historical sources

LUNCH 13:45-15h

SCHEDULED TRANSFER TO MAHON SALA D'AUDIÈNCIES

ARTISTIC WORKSHOP, 16:30-19h Mahon Sala d'Audiències

Coordination and presentation:
Quim Bonastra

GUEST ARTISTS: MITO collective, mito.tv
The workshop's collective artistic production will be projected onto the façade of an adjacent building by 20h

DAY 3, SATURDAY 7 MAY
(Mahon Lazaretto)

POSTER SESSION 10-11:45h

Coordination and presentation:
Francisco Javier Martínez, Celia Miralles-Buil

Andreas Vourtsis, PhD candidate, Institute for Mediterranean Studies, Foundation for Research and Technology Hellas Rethymno, Greece.

Mass vaccination against epidemics: The case of Greece's response in the cholera epidemic during the Balkan Wars 1912-1913

Tiasanglia Longkumer, PhD candidate, Jawaharlal Nehru University/Asoka University, India

Rockefeller Foundation in the Making of Modern Sanitation Science: A Study of the Hookworm Campaign in China and India

Matheus Duarte da Silva. Postdoc Researcher, St. Andrews University, UK.

From Universal Rats to Tropical Sylvatic Foci: Animals, Places, and Plague in Brazil (1899-1955)

Sofia Sánchez, María Victoria Armario. IlerCOVID Museum project, Universitat de Lleida, Spain.

IlerCOVID Museum: a virtual museum on pandemics through art, science and society

COFFEE-BREAK 11:45-12:15h

MENTORING SESSION 12:15-14h

Coordination and presentation:
Francisco Javier Martínez, Celia Miralles-Buil, Quim Bonastra

Scientific and professional enquiries addressed by School participants and attendants to our guest speakers

LUNCH, 14-15:30h

VISIT TO MAHON LAZARETTO, 15:30-17:30h